Since 1960 SJQHA has been a member affiliate of the Oregon Quarter Horse Association and the American Quarter Horse Association. AQHA is the largest single breed equine registry in the world with over 4.5 million registered. The AQHA has shown its commitment to the future of its members by awarding over $7 million in scholarships in the last 30 years and has been instrumental with Morris Animal Foundation in awarding over $3.2 million to equine research. SJQHA is working with AQHA to promote the American Quarter Horse and offers something for everyone; recreational riders, professionals, youth, or somewhere in between. Come join us at sjqha.org SJQHA offers its members:

- Shows and Events with the opportunity to earn points to qualify for world shows and AQHA lifetime achievement awards.
- SJQHA Year End Awards
- Organized educational, recreational, and social events.
- A community resource and network for the Quarter Horse industry.
